New Membership Applications

If your organisation has not been a member of ANGOA in past years, please include with this form:

1. A link to where we can look online at your organisation's Constitution (if you have one), or a photocopy, so we can be sure you qualify;
2. A statement of your aims and objectives, if these are not in the constitution;
3. A letter to the ANGOA Coordinating Committee applying to become a member, confirming that your organisation supports the objectives of ANGOA, and will pay the annual membership fee. (this is required under the ANGOA Constitution)
4. information for the ANGOA website, to facilitate networking* If you want to be listed please provide:
 - the name of the appropriate contact person
 - phone number
 - your own website address
 - a short description of what your NGO offers (about 20 words max)

* We do not publish your email address, to avoid it being picked up by spammers.

You are welcome to send these documents as an email with attachments.

Membership applications are generally considered at the next meeting of the ANGOA Coordinating Committee after they are received, and confirmed by the next AGM.

We look forward to working with you, and thank you warmly for your support.
